THE BAND

MISSISSAUGA POPS CONCERT BAND has been delighting audiences in Southern Ontario for over three decades. This award-winning musical group has a membership of about 50 performers—amateurs to semi-professionals—whose passion is providing quality concert band music to their listening audience. These concerts have given audiences and band members the chance to share in musical moments with such greats as Peter Appleyard, Johnny Cowell, Bobby Herriot, trombonist Alastair Kay, Dinah Christie, television's Luba Goy, and Canadian composer Howard Cable. The Pops' concert schedule also includes local summer appearances as well as the ever-popular Community Christmas Sing at Eden United Church. The Pops' solid reputation has extended outside its home community with performances across the province and in the USA. Visit the 'Pops' online on their Facebook and Twitter pages and at www.MississaugaPops.com.

OUR SPECIAL GUEST CONDUCTOR

Pratik Gandhi is a conductor, freelance percussionist, and clinician based in Toronto. He currently serves as music director of Soup Can Theatre and of the Rouge River Winds, and recently completed a five-year tenure as assistant conductor of Symphony on the Bay. He served on faculty as conductor of the string orchestra, symphony orchestra, and faculty string orchestra at the International Music Camp in 2012, and is the newly-named resident conductor of TPC Ensemble. He is thrilled to be serving as guest conductor for the Mississauga Pops Concert Band in the fall of 2016.

Pratik is in frequent demand as a clinician and as a percussionist as well. He has been called upon for guest conducting and giving workshops on repertoire, percussion pedagogy, and technology. He serves as an adjudicator for the concert band division of the MusicFest Canada national competition and is the syllabus coordinator for both MusicFest Canada's concert band division and the OBA Concert Band Festival. Additionally, Pratik freelances as a featured performer and ensemble percussionist with various Ontario-based orchestras, wind bands, chamber ensembles, and pit orchestras.

Pratik received a B.Mus. in music education and an M.Mus. in conducting from the University of Western Ontario, where he studied conducting with Dr. Colleen Richardson, Jerome Summers and James McKay, and percussion with Dr. Jill Ball. He received numerous entrance and in-course scholarships and awards, including the Western Scholarship of Excellence, the London Music Scholarship Foundation Endowment Award, and the Silver Medal for Excellence in Leadership.
